

Adult Homes/Adult Care Facilities

Adult Care Facilities (ACF) and Adult Homes (AH) are licensed and regulated by the New York State Department of Health. They can offer private and semi-private rooms with private or shared bathrooms, or apartment units, some with a small kitchenette. ACFs provide the following services: meals, housekeeping, laundry/linen service, limited transportation services, social activities, some personal care, medication management, and 24 hour supervision. Some may have additional certifications such as Enriched Housing (EH), Assisted Living Programs (ALP), or Assisted Living Residences (ALR). (See specific Eldersource Resource Listings for these specialized facilities) Most require private payment; however, some may offer private subsidies or accept Supplemental Security Income (SSI) depending on individual eligibility. Some Long Term Care Insurance policies cover a portion of the cost this program.xx
